Six Sixty Three Broadway
Newark, New Jersey

Tenth Anniversary

Dedication

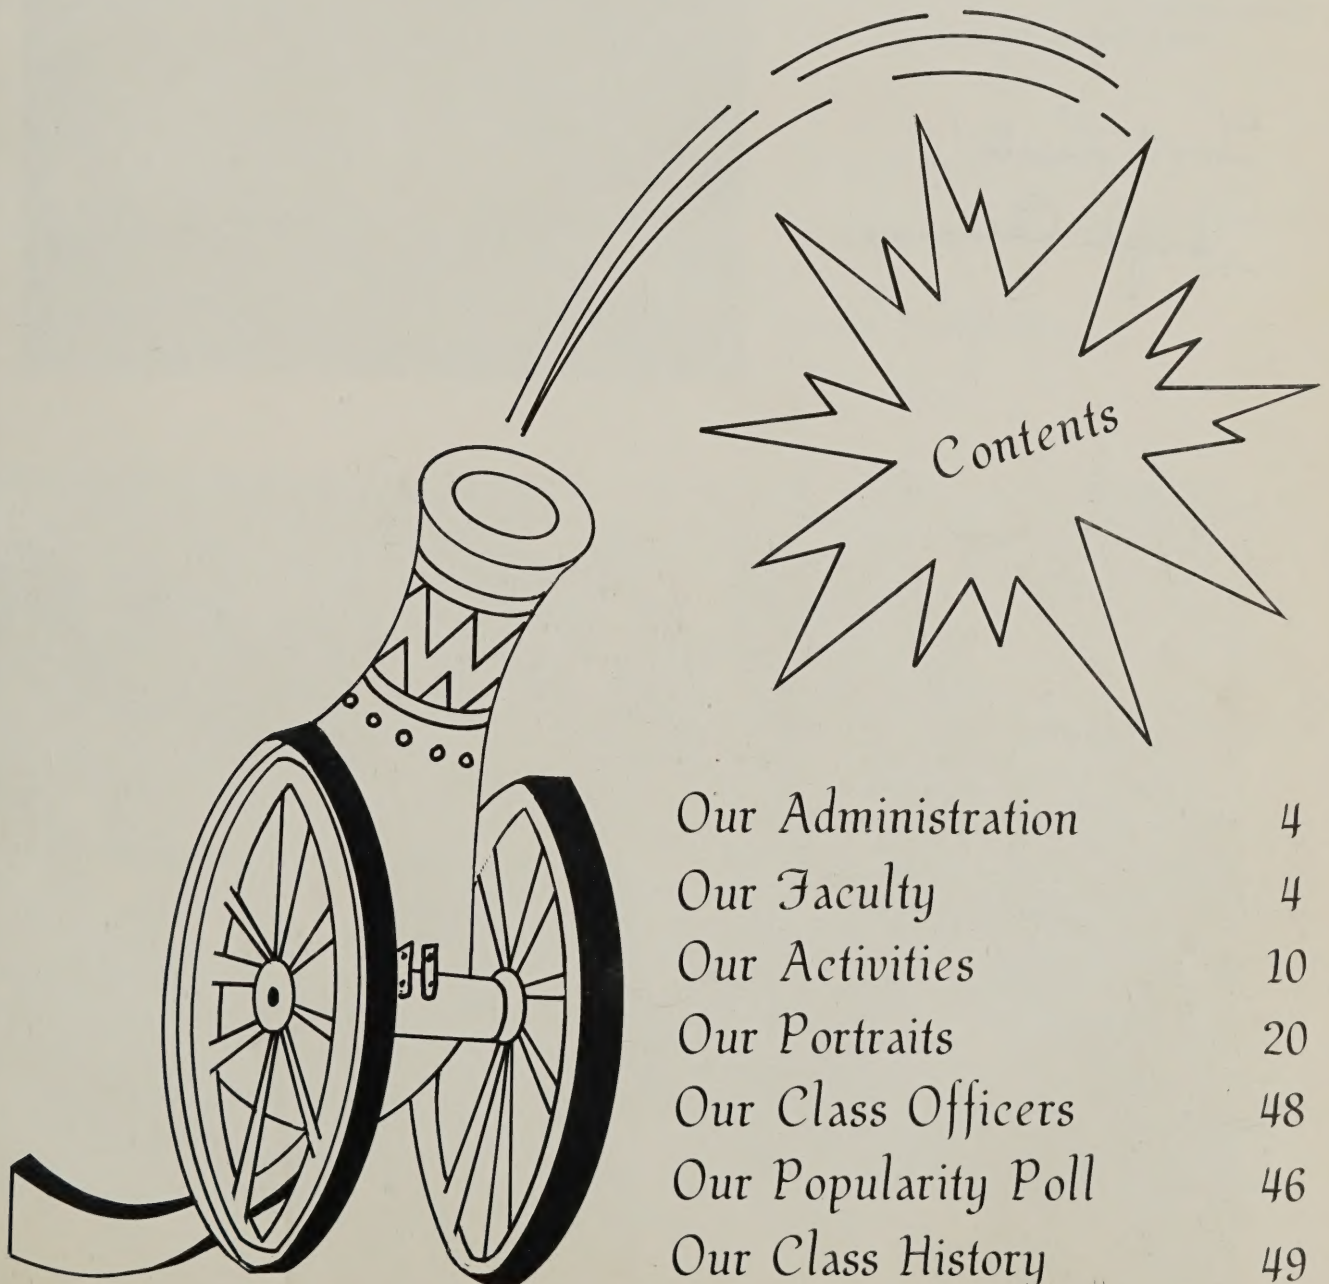

The class of 1966 dedicates this yearbook to our principal, Mr. Joseph Celiano, as a testimonial of deep appreciation and affection.

His unstinting and unselfish service to his school and community will forever be a source of inspiration to us.

Prologue

In the years to come as you leaf through this Limelight, we, the Limelight staff, hope you will recall the fond memories of your days at Broadway Junior High School. The staff has strived to make the reading of this annual one of pleasant rewards.

Broadway Junior High School celebrated its tenth anniversary on February 1, 1966. We can all be proud of the progress made by our school during its first ten years. You, the graduates, should consider yourselves fortunate that you have received part of your education in a school that has such a fine program.

It is my hope for you that you will continue to receive the same kind of guidance and training in the future that you have been accustomed to receive from our competent faculty.

Joseph Celiano, Principal

Good Luck!

History of the Graduating Class

As this year is nearing the end, we, the Senior Class of 1966, proudly celebrate not only our graduation, but we also pause to remember the first tenth year mark of Broadway Junior High School. Much has been accomplished during these first ten years. We can only thank the faculty, the administration, and our parents who have tried so hard to establish in us a sound character.

Our academic record from the beginning has been noteworthy. Many of our fine young boys and girls have been found on college campuses; others in occupations and positions where competency was a prime pre-requisite. Outstanding members of previous classes have also been proud to acknowledge Broadway Junior High School as the "school that helped build the basics of education and taught the lessons in citizenship which are so valuable in life."

Various students have represented the student body in inter and intra city competition. In these contests we have always managed to draw praise for our efforts and in many of them came home to Broadway Junior High School with the winning laurels.

Traditionally, the excellent musical talents of our choruses, our band, and our orchestra have both delighted the ears and eyes of the listeners. Solos in vocal arrangements and instrumental renditions illustrate the fine sense of poise and cultural understanding achieved by the participants. In every area of the school day, academic, or non-academic, we have tried to be deserving.

Our gymnasium is and was the place to watch for athletic prowess. Activities from running distances to the basket made from the mid-court line are cheered and enjoyed by teachers, visitors, alumni, and students. Team spirit and school patriotism have been fostered from year to year for the challenge of competition is dormant in no man.

These and other achievements we leave behind us as we enter a world of ever-increasing problems and uneasiness among nations of the world. Yet, as we leave, we feel confident. We place this confidence in ourselves because we were taught to do so, here within the halls of our Alma Mater.

Last Will and Testament of

We, the graduating class of 1966, being of sound mind and body do hereby make, publish and declare the following as our Last Will and Testament, and appoint our advisors, Mrs. E. Salkin and Mr. R. Harvey, as Executors, without Bond.

First, we direct our Executors to give the same attention and gentle care to future graduating classes.

Second, we give, devise, and bequeath unto the future graduating classes all the privileges, positions and responsibilities of Seniors.

Third, we devise and bequeath to the following:

Mr. Celiano - A school full of good kids.

Mr. Litchtenstein - A tape recorder for the P.A. announcements.

Mrs. Byrne - A pair of roller skates.

Mrs. Allen - A class of Rembrants.

Miss Coyle - A newspaper photographer.

Mrs. Salkin - An easy bake oven.

Miss Carlucci - A one way ticket to Spain, selling guide books.

Miss Reilly - A Doctors Kit by Remco.

Mrs. Rennie - A free call to Peoples Foods.

Miss Schaberg - A class of Italianos.

Mrs. Kaufman - Some voi ces.

Miss Farfaglia - No more cafeteria supervision.

Miss DeSalvo - No more summer school.

Mrs. Horrigan - Free boxing gloves and boxing lessons.

Miss Cordasco - A new group of cheerleaders.

Mrs. Errico - A House and Gardens magazine.

Mrs. Williams - An enthusiastic gym class.

Miss Millard - An awake history class.

Mrs. D'Antuono - A vocabulary of art words for the new students.

Mr. Fidlow - A megaphone.

Mr. Giffonello - A new basketball team.

Mr. Vasselli - A Gilbert Chemistry Lab.

Mr. Little - A pair of brass knuckles.

Mr. Ransom - His own weight counted in pennies.

Mr. Nelson - Shop King.

Mr. Maughan - A stack of referrals, sharpeners, and chalk.

Mr. Giacobbe - A new world globe.

Alma Mater

Sing out loud and clear for our Alma Mater,

A song sweet and true, that will ring through the years.

When fondly recalled, the moments of gladness

And friendships so dear, we will treasure anew.

Though farewell one day we must say, with loyalty we'll keep in sight

These our colors maroon and white, the emblem of our honor bright.

So, Broadway, with pride, we echo your praises,

The school we all love will remain in our hearts.

The Graduating Class

Mr. Harvey - A senior class that pays their dues.
Mr. Vantuono - An English Dictionary.
Mr. Rocco - A pocket size computer.
Mr. Feldberg - A co-operative ninth grade.
Mr. Schwartz - A swingin' orchestra.
Mr. Jones - A short stick.
